JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 28 January 1971

[REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED] Met with Senator Milton Young (R., N. Dak.) with whom I reviewed the problem of Senator Clifford Case's disclosures about our Radios. Senator Young said thus far there had been very little interest in this matter in the Senate, but it might come up for attention later.

[REDACTED]

I briefed Senator Young on recent information regarding the Soviet Far East and Central Asian Military Districts, [REDACTED] strategic missile program and Chinese fighter production.

Senator Young asked for detailed information on the status of the Foxbat, and on military aircraft production [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He wanted facts and figures on [REDACTED] of military aircraft. I said I would get the answers and let him know shortly.

3. [REDACTED] Lunched with Phil Kelleher, former Assistant Counsel of the House Armed Services Committee and now a speech writer and private consultant to Chairman F. Edward Hebert. See Memo for the Record for details.
